

Summer Bible Reading Program

We wrap up our RISE! readings on May 31. I want us to keep our healthy and fruitful habit of daily Bible reading and reflection going through the Summer. We will be reading and reflecting on a different Psalm each week. The Psalms are some of the most beautiful and passion-filled, yet down-to-earth writings of the Bible.

I encourage you, over the course of the week, to read the psalm of the week in 3 different versions, if possible. Read it in a literal translation such as ESV, KJV or NASB. Then read it in something modern like The Message. Then read one more version of your choice. If you have access to the internet, www.biblegateway.com is a great tool with all different versions.

Here is our reading schedule:
